

A Creative Day of Play

Saturday 27th May 2017

Trish Watts and Rod Pattenden

Join vocalist and teacher Trish Watts and storyteller and improviser Rod Pattenden for one big day of play that explores the deeper secrets of InterPlay!

Saturday 27th May 10am to 4pm

Using the gentle skills of InterPlay in movement, stillness, voice and story.

Extend your creativity and expressiveness, and relax into a deeper awareness of your own physical experience. Led by two dynamic and inventive facilitators who have fun in their bones and joy in their finger tips!

Trish has had a lifetime of voice work as a composer and performer and has just returned from 2 years working in Cambodia bringing healing through community voice. Rod is an artist and storyteller and knows the power of creative change for individuals and community well being.

Costs $60/50 conc. Bring lunch to share.

Sing Free! with Trish Watts Sunday 28th 2-4pm

Use your voice to play with the dynamics of your life; too loud, too timid, worried, exuberant or simply exhausted! Having a voice is your birthright! We will sing up, learn new songs, play and have fun! Costs $25/20 conc.

Adamstown Uniting Church Hall Newcastle
cnr Brunner and Glebe Rds Adamstown
Bookings adamuca@bigpond.com or 4957 1887